

SC Home School Information

Parents or guardians may choose to home school their children instead of enrolling them in a public, private, or parochial school. South Carolina statutes provide parents/ guardians with three different options for home schooling their children.

Option One allows the parents to home school their children under the auspices of a school district, if approved by the board of trustees.

Option Two, parents may home school their children with the support of the South Carolina Association of Independent Home Schools.

Option Three, parents may choose a home school association which has no fewer than fifty members and meets the home school requirements.

Each Option has different requirements. Parents/ guardians should select the Home Schooling option that is best for their children.

Please visit the South Carolina Department of Education website listed below for a full explanation of the Home School policy.

South Carolina Department of Education:

<https://ed.sc.gov/districts-schools/state-accountability/home-schooling/>

Home School Association for Military Families <http://www.hsamf.org/>

Lowcountry Home School Association <http://www.lowcountryhomeschool.com/>

Palmetto Home School Association <http://palmettoha.org/>

SC Association of Independent Home Schools <http://schomeschooling.com/>

You may also call the school liaison for home school group information.
843.228.6128

Revised: 25 July 17