

Private/Parochial Schools

There are several private/parochial school options in Beaufort County. To see all of them please visit http://www.privateschoolreview.com/county\_private\_schools/stateid/SC/county/45013 or <http://www.sciway.net/edu/k12/beaufort.html>

Some of the ones most commonly attended are:

1. Agape Christian Academy (K5-12th) is a private Christian school in the Lowcountry of South Carolina in Beaufort County. They offer an academically accelerated Christian curriculum. Their focus is not only on the academic development of each student, but also the spiritual development of each as they strive to exemplify and share the love, mercy and grace of our Lord Jesus Christ. <http://www.agapechristianacademysc.com/>
2. Beaufort Academy (K2-12th) believes in the tripod philosophy of education, placing emphasis not only on academic success but also on participation in arts and athletics. BA encourages students to take advantage of the numerous opportunities afforded to them and to explore new experiences. While academics come first, BA students are also involved in multiple activities throughout the year, ranging from performing on stage, to participating on an athletic team, to taking the challenge offered by academic competitions. <http://www.beaufortacademy.org/>
3. Beaufort Christian (K3-12th) recognizes that God has given every child unique gifts – and a unique calling. Every child is made in God's own image, and therefore has inestimable value. Our goal is to help all our students discover and defend the truth, identify and develop their individual gifts, and achieve their fullest, God-given potential – intellectually, physically, and spiritually. <http://beaufortchristianschool.org/>
4. Holy Trinity Classical Christian School's (K2-12th) mission is to be distinctly classical and distinctively Christian. They will enter a partnership with parents as they educate students with a biblical worldview. They are committed to the pursuit of religious truth, wisdom, scholastic excellence, and the love of learning. With the Holy Scriptures as the foundation for all they learn, their students will be ambassadors of the Kingdom of God, prepared to defend and advance the apostolic Christian faith. <http://www.htccs.org/>
5. John Paul II Catholic School (7th-12th) is committed to preparing students with diverse learning abilities for the challenges of life through intellectual, physical, and spiritual programs that advance academic excellence, leadership, a healthy lifestyle, and service to others while fostering discipleship according to the traditions of the Catholic faith. <http://www.johnpaul2school.org/>
6. St. Peter's Catholic School (K3-6th) offers a program to all students that is academically rigorous and spiritually enriching. Their curriculum is guided by the nationally validated Core Knowledge program which leads to the development of culturally literate students who have mastered the blend of content, concepts, and skills which defines the educated person. <http://saintpeterscatholicschoolbeaufortsc.org/index.jsp>
7. Thomas Heyward Academy (K4-12th) is an independent, college preparatory school serving Pre-Kindergarten through 12th grade. Their mission is to foster a life-long passion for learning, leading and serving in a diverse world. They are dedicated to the development of each student in mind and body through academics, arts and athletics in a safe and engaging environment. The school is equally committed to the development of each student's character, with an emphasis on compassion, integrity, perseverance, respect and responsibility. <http://www.thomasheyward.org/home>

Revised: 25 July 2017